

HONOUR

1. Definition

- 5092 time-
- a valuing by which the price is fixed
- reverence

2. What to honour?

- To God, - 1 Tim 1:17; 6:16; Rev 4:9,11
- To Christ, - Rev 5:12-13;
- bestowed upon Christ by the Father – Heb 2:9; 2 Pet 1:17
- bestowed upon man, - Heb 2:7
- bestowed upon Aaronic priests - Heb 5:4
- to be the reward hereafter of "the proof of faith" on the part of tried saints - 1 Pet 1:7
- used of the believer who as a vessel is "meet for the Master's use," - 2 Tim 2:21
- to be the reward of patience in well-doing - Rom 2:7,
- to be given to all to whom it is due - Rom 13:7
- as an advantage to be given by believers one to another instead of claiming it for self - Rom 12:10;
- to be given to elders that rule well ("double honor") - 1 Tim 5:17 (here the meaning may be an honorarium);
- to be given by servants to their master - 1 Tim 6:1
- to be given to wives by husbands - 1 Pet 3:7
- said of the husband's use of the wife, in contrast to the exercise of the passion of lust - 1 Thes 4:4
- of that bestowed upon; parts of the body - 1 Cor 12:23-24
- of that which belongs to the builder of a house in contrast to the house itself - Heb 3:3
- of that which is not enjoyed by a prophet in his own country - Jhn 4:44
- of that bestowed by the inhabitants of Melita upon Paul and his fellow-passengers, in gratitude for his benefits of healing - Acts 28:10
- of the festive honour to be possessed by nations, and brought into the Holy City, the heavenly Jerusalem, - Rev. 21:26
- of honour bestowed upon things inanimate, a potters' vessel, - Rom. 9:21

3. Summary

Always value some higher than yourself